

Honors in the Major:

Sociology

Students in the Honors Program can choose to pursue various designations to earn upon graduation, including Honors in the Major. By completing Honors in the Major, students will:

- engage in an enriched and extended learning experience;
- develop as scholars and gain an edge over their peers by choosing a rigorous preparation in their field of study;
- be recognized in the Commencement Book, transcript, and on the diploma.

Students earn this designation at graduation; requirements, including being in good standing with the Honors Program, are reviewed at the end of the final semester:

1. 3.3 cumulative GPA
2. 3.5 major GPA
3. Fulfill Honors Program participation requirements: 1 Honors Learning Experience per semester in the program, including the final semester (students are not required to complete an Honors Learning Experience when they are off-campus)
4. Complete 2 Honors Learning Experiences in SOC courses, specifically:
 - a. Honors Contract in a 100, 200, or 300 level course
 - b. Honors Contract in a 100, 200, or 300 level course
5. Complete an Honors Capstone Experience, specifically:
 - Honors Independent Study (SOC 299) or Honors Thesis (HON 395), taken concurrently with SOC 300
